- d) Candidates who do not possess Spanish citizenship or come from a country where Spanish is not an official language must accredit language skills in one of the official languages in the Autonomous Region of the Balearic Islands. This accreditation shall preferably be demonstrated with a certificate in accordance with the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) or an official language qualification.

Additional Information

Monthly salary and benefits: €3,577.

Selection Procedure

1. When the committee is established, it will set and publicly release the objective criteria for the final resolution of the call, in accordance with the requirements for the positions included in the call. It will also specify whether candidates will be interviewed or not. The committee's decision will be published on the official UIB e-notice board
2. Access call assessments shall be held in-person at the University of the Balearic Islands, although this does not rule out the use of remote methods

3. Candidates must submit the required documents within the deadline set by the committee and, where applicable, attend interviews. Candidates who fail to submit said documents or attend interviews shall be excluded from the call, except in the event of duly justified force majeure.

Candidates must submit the following documents to the committee chair:

A CV in line with the template used for accreditation applications at the National Agency for Quality Assessment and Accreditation of Spain (ANECA, by its Spanish acronym). Using this CV template exempts candidates from submitting any supporting documents for their merits.

All documents must be submitted in digital format as per the method set in the call announced by the committee.

4. The assessment of merits and interviews shall start within a minimum of ten (10) days from the committee being established and come to an end within a maximum of sixty (60) days from publication of the final lists of admitted and excluded candidates. Where all candidates agree, the minimum deadline may be adjusted and the assessment of merits and interviews be held from the day following publication of the committee's decision.

Interviews shall comprise candidate's presenting and defending their academic merits and suitability for the position, and may not exceed thirty (30) minutes. After this, the committee will have a sixty (60) minute discussion with candidates on any aspect it deems relevant with regard to submitted documents, and the presentation and defence.

The committee's provisional decision will be published on the official UIB e-notice board.

Additional Comments

Submission of Documents and Appointments

The candidates put forward for positions must submit the documents listed below at the Registry Support Office at the University of the Balearic Islands within twenty (20) days from the end of the committee's deliberations or, where applicable, the final resolution:

- a) National ID document or equivalent for overseas citizens
- b) An official medical certificate accrediting their capacity to perform the duties inherent to university lecturer positions
- c) A sworn statement that they have not been removed from any position at public administrations, or constitutional or statutory bodies in autonomous regions, due to disciplinary action; or that they have not been disqualified in any form from holding public positions or posts by a legal ruling, all of which would prevent them from accessing civil service positions or, for contract staff, performing similar duties. In the case of overseas citizens, a sworn statement that they have not been disqualified or similar, or that they have been subject to disciplinary action, or similar, preventing them from accessing public sector employment in their home nation in the same terms
- d) A sworn statement that they undertake to stay in the position for two years before applying for another university teaching position
- e) A PhD degree
- f) A sworn statement that they undertake to comply with the UIB's rules of peaceful and respectful co-existence.

Candidates who are in active service as full civil servants will be exempt from providing the documents set out in sections a), b) and c). Instead, they must submit a certificate from the ministry or body where they work, accrediting their employment status and service record.

Candidates who hold tenured lecturer positions at the University of the Balearic Islands are only required to submit the sworn statement in Section 12.1 d) and the photocopy in Section 12.1 e) where these are not already included in their administrative record.

Appointment as a tenured lecturer or professor shall be made by the President and Vice Chancellor once the successful candidate has fulfilled the requirements and deadlines set out in the aforementioned sections. The appointment will specify the position type: category, knowledge area and code. Appointments shall be notified to the relevant registry for the purpose of allocating a personal registry number and entry for the respective categories, for publication in the BOE (Official State Gazette) and BOIB (Official Gazette of the Balearic Islands). They will also be communicated to the General Secretary of the Universities Council.

Candidates who fail to submit their documents within the set deadline, except in the event of force majeure, or whose documents are deemed as failing to fulfil any requirement set out in Section 12.1, shall not be appointed full civil servants and be disqualified from the procedure, without prejudice to their liability for having submitted a misleading application.

Oath of Office

Within a maximum deadline of twenty (20) days starting from the day following publication of the appointment in the BOE, the proposed candidate shall swear their oath of office to become full civil servants within the full professor category, with the rights and duties inherent to said position.
